CONSENT DECREE AND ORDER

1. Ron Kolesar ("Plaintiff"), filed a Complaint on March 12, 2019, against Zippo Manufacturing Company (the "Company"), alleging that the Company failed to design, construct, and maintain its websites that is fully accessible to and independently usable by Plaintiff and other blind or visually-impaired people. Plaintiff alleges this resulted in a denial of full and equal access to the websites in violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA")(42 U.S.C. § 1201 et seq.).

2. The Company denies the allegations in the Complaint, and by entering into this Consent Decree and Order does not admit liability to any of the allegations in Plaintiff's Complaint. The Parties enter into this Consent Decree and Order for the purpose of resolving this lawsuit without the need for protracted litigation, and without the admission of any liability.

3. To avoid the costs, expense, and uncertainty of protracted litigation, the Parties to this Consent Decree agree to entry of this Order to resolve all claims regarding injunctive relief and damages raised in the Complaint. Accordingly, they agree to the entry of this Order without trial or further adjudication of any issues of fact or law concerning Plaintiff's claims for injunctive relief or damages.

4. This Order shall be a full, complete, and final disposition and settlement of Plaintiff's claims against the Company for injunctive relief and damages that have arisen out of the subject Complaint. The Parties agree that there has been no admission or finding of liability or violation of the ADA and/or any other state or federal civil rights, and this Consent Decree and Order should not be construed as such.

I. JURISDICTION

5. The Parties to this Consent Decree agree that the Court has jurisdiction of this matter pursuant to 28 USC § 1331 for alleged violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 USC § 12101 et seq.

II. INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

6. The Company will, within eighteen months of the Effective Date, use good faith efforts to cause the U.S. portion of Zippo.com to substantially conform with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.0 Level AA and/or 2.1 Level A&AA to the extent readily achievable. Should the Department of Justice issue final regulations, or the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit issue a precedential opinion, adopting a legal standard for website accessibility that is different from the WCAG 2.0 Level AA, the Company shall have the option of complying with that legal standard, which option it may exercise in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Third Party Content on the website will not be required to meet the WCAG 2.0 Level AA and/or 2.1 Level A&AA standard. The term "Third Party Content" refers to web content that is not developed or owned by the Company or any Releasee. The Company has removed the website <http://ronsonusa.com> from the internet.

III. MONETARY RELIEF

7. The Company will provide as additional consideration in resolution of all claims that were or could have been made in this or any related action, a monetary sum, as set forth in a Confidential Addendum executed between the Parties separately from this Consent Decree. Plaintiff agrees that neither he nor his attorneys are entitled to any other monetary compensation as a result of the Lawsuit, this Consent Decree, or any other claim Plaintiff may have against the Company, Zipcorp, Inc., its affiliates, subsidiaries, licensees and related entities. The Confidential Addendum shall be provided to the Court in camera for inspection and review if the Court so requires in order to extend its enforcement jurisdiction over the terms of the Confidential Addendum.

IV. ENTIRE CONSENT DECREE AND ORDER

8. This Consent Decree and Order, together with the Confidential Addendum referenced in Paragraph 7, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties on the matters of injunctive relief and damages, attorney fees, litigation expenses and costs, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or oral, made by any of the Parties or agents of any of the Parties, that is not contained in this written Consent Decree and Order, shall be enforceable regarding the matters described in this Consent Decree.

V. RELEASE OF CLAIMS

9. For and in consideration of the promises, commitments and undertakings set forth in this Consent Decree, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and any of his agents, employees, representatives, assigns, heirs, executors, trustees, partners and attorneys, and each of them ("Releasers"), shall be deemed to have jointly and severally forever released and discharged Company, Zipcorp. Inc., its affiliates, subsidiaries, licensees and related entities, together with its and their respective past, present, and future officers, directors, employees, agents, stockholders, attorneys, servants, representatives, parent entities, subsidiary entities, other related entities, partners, insurers, licensees, contractors, independent consultants, and the predecessors, successors, heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of each of the foregoing ("Releasees"), from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, demands, rights, liabilities, damages, lawsuits, legal proceedings, losses, fees, costs and expenses of any kind whatsoever, whether known or unknown, including, but not limited to, any related monetary, injunctive or declaratory relief, and for reimbursement of attorney's fees, costs and expenses, relating to the Complaint and their websites and other digital assets ("Released Claims"). § 1542 (and under any and all other statutes or common law principles of similar effect) which reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

11. Plaintiff acknowledges that he may hereafter discover facts different from, or in addition to, those which he now believes to be true with respect to the Released Claims. On his own behalf and on behalf of all of the Releasees, Plaintiff agrees that the foregoing release and waiver shall be and remain effective in all respects notwithstanding such different or additional facts or discovery thereof, and that this Consent Decree contemplates the extinguishment of all such Released Claims. By executing this Consent Decree, Plaintiff acknowledges the following: (a) he is represented by counsel of his own choosing; (b) he has read and fully understands the provisions of California Civil Code § 1542; and (c) he has been specifically advised by his counsel of the consequences of the above waiver and this Consent Decree generally.

12. Plaintiff expressly covenants that, as against any Releasee, he has not and will not file, initiate, commence, institute, maintain, or prosecute any action at law, suit in equity or other proceeding, or seek damages or other relief incurred or allegedly incurred by him, related to, arising out of, or in any way connected with the Complaint or any Released Claim.
